Foreword

To you, students and faculty of the Woman's Medical College Hospital School of Nursing, we present the 1956 Cap and Candle.

We wish to thank our families, faculty, physicians, nurses and friends for all you have contributed and your profound interest in the Class of 1956. Without you we could not have succeeded in presenting this 1956 edition.

Dedication

We wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks for all you have done for the student nurses of the Woman's Medical College Hospital. So to you, Mrs. John B. Kelly, the graduating class of 1956 dedicates its yearbook.

The Florence Nightingale Pledge

"I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly to pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully. I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous, and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drugs. I will do all in my power to elevate the standard of my profession and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my calling. With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care."

MOLLY WALLACK, R.N., B.S., M.A.
Assistant Director of Nurses

They have understood our problems, assisted us with patience of steel, listened to our complaints with an admirable smile, inspired us with confidence, encouraged us when we were disheartened, and enhanced our chance for success. Their determined effort to make us satisfied and happy shall always be remembered.

"And only the Master shall praise us, and only the Master shall blame;

And no one shall work for money, and no one shall work for fame;

But each for the joy of working, and each, in his separate star,

Shall draw the Thing as he sees It, for the God of Things as They Are!

—Kipling

The Nurse

The world grows better year by year,
Because some nurse in her little sphere,
Puts on her apron and grins and sings,
And keeps on doing the same old things.

Taking the temperatures, giving the pills
To remedy mankind's numberless ills;
Feeding the baby, answering the bells
Being polite with a heart that rebels.

Longing for home and all the while
Wearing the same old professional smile;
Blessing the new born babe's first breath
Closing the eyes that are still in death.

Taking the blame for the doctor's mistakes,
Oh Dear, what a lot of patience it takes;
Going off duty at seven o'clock
Tired, discouraged, and ready to drop.

But called back on special at seven fifteen
With woe in her heart, but it must not be seen,
Morning and evening, and noon and night.
Just doing it over and hoping it's right.

When we lay down our caps and cross the bar
Oh Lord, will you give us just one little star,
To wear in our crowns with our uniforms, new
In that city above, where the Head Nurse is You.
